Enzymatica recruits new Director of Quality Assurance

Enzymatica has hired Åsa Anderlind to serve as Director Quality Assurance and be part of the company's management group. Åsa will be responsible for quality assurance at Enzymatica, including maintenance and streamlining of the processes in the company's ISO 13485 certified quality management system. She has extensive experience at medical device and pharmaceutical companies. Åsa is starting at Enzymatica in October 2019.

Åsa Anderlind comes most recently from QPharma, where she was responsible for GMP training and internal audits. Before that she was Director of Quality Assurance at Euro Diagnostica AB and Wieslab AB (subsidiary) for ten years. She has also held various quality assurance positions at BioInvent, Ferring and Biopool.

"We are extremely pleased to have Åsa Anderlind join us at Enzymatica. With her solid and extensive experience in the field of quality assurance, she will contribute additional key skills in the development of our business, especially in quality assurance related to medical device products," says Fredrik Lindberg, CEO of Enzymatica.

"I look forward to working at Enzymatica, which with its barrier technology has tremendous development potential, especially in international markets," says Åsa Anderlind.
